

CLAYBORNE E. CHAVERS, SR.

Attorney Clayborne E. Chavers, Sr. is the Chair & Founder of The Chavers Firm, LLC.

Attorney Chavers is the first chairman of the Entertainment, Sports, and Art Law Section of the National Bar Association and founded the Washington Area Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts. He served for several elected terms on the Sports Entertainment, Media and Sports Law Section of the DC Bar Association. He was the first general counsel and charter member of the Association of American Cultures.

Attorney Clay Chavers is a nationally renowned and honored "Preeminent A/V Rated" attorney and leader in the fields of arts & entertainment law and civil rights, diversity & inclusion. He is an expert on multicultural and diversity issues, highly successful in mediating complex litigation, closing complex business deals, and, negotiating and litigating federal and state administrative proceedings, trials and appeals.

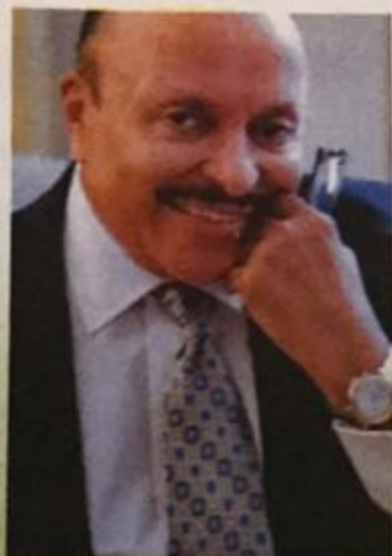

Clayborne Chavers, Esq. is described as, but not only defined as, an Entertainment Lawyer. He represents numerous award winning writers, directors and talent of TV, theater, radio and screen. The Chavers Firm, LLC also represents a broad spectrum of clients, including individuals, large corporate entities, organizations, nonprofit associations and foreign governments.

A trailblazer and thought innovator, Attorney Chavers developed and taught the first-ever D.C. Bar CLE course in arts, entertainment and sports law at the Georgetown University Law Center.

Early in his career, Attorney Chavers served as director of civil rights compliance at the National Endowment for the Arts. In fact, he authored and established its Civil Rights Compliance Program throughout the United States. To this day, Attorney Clayborne E. Chavers, Sr. & The Chavers Firm, LLC bring a very human quality and human interaction to their family of clients with the utmost consideration of the global community.

He is the originating attorney and later co-counseled in one of the largest race based unlawful employment discrimination class action settlements in the United States. The cases are Davis v. Eastman Kodak Co. and Alston et al. v. Eastman Kodak Co., in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of New York.

Clay Chavers, Esq. represented and originated the partial ownership claim of the Michael Jackson Company in the Probate Court and Superior Court of Los Angeles County.

THE CHAVERS FIRM, LLC.

5335 Wisconsin Ave., NW Suite 440

Washington, D.C. 20015

cell: 301.704.1776 | office: 202.467.8324 | fax: 202.466.0502

chavlawfirm@gmail.com | www.chavlawfirm.com